Greetings from Learn with Leaders!

Congratulations! We have shortlisted your school for a scholarship opportunity for our prestigious Research Scholars program in collaboration with Harvard Student Agencies. This is a unique, one-of-a-kind platform for your ambitious high school students (Grades 8 to 12) to develop their research skills and become a published author with a reputed journal! We are impressed by the way your school has employed a global outlook in curriculum and pedagogy that resonates with our core offerings to serve the student's potential. We would like to invite you to nominate deserving students who can benefit from this program.
