Student Report

Molly O’Rourke-introduced herself as the newly elected Chair of the Student Council. The Committee welcomed her as the representative for School Committee. Gavin Arnold informed that the Iced Coffee House was this evening. Caroline Mazzolla informed the Committee of the new members elected to School Council. Molly stated that it was the Student Council’s goal next year to educate students regarding the School Committee and its operation.

HES School Improvement Plan

Mary Beth Banios provided a PowerPoint presentation of the Elementary School Improvement Plan for next school year. The Committee discussed the process for approving the plan and will review it further. The Chair requested that Mary Beth provide updates bi-annually. Piali De requested to see metrics and measures of success in six months.

School Committee Reports

Piali De reported that she along with two other School Committee members met with the Bromfield Student Council where they discussed concerns regarding communication. Piali and Virginia will brainstorm on communication ideas. Piali will bring written notes to the Committee on the meeting with the Council as it was a posted School Committee meeting.

Keith Cheveralls apologized for his omission in thanking Community Education for their donation for Teacher Appreciation Week. He recognized that he had received some concerns regarding the revisions to the 0809 School Calendar. He stated that the Policy Subcommittee was in transition. He advised that the July 4th Committee invited all members to march in the parade, and he suggested that they brainstorm ideas for a float. He informed that the Board of Selectmen had invited the School Committee to its June 16th meeting to discuss health insurance in executive session. Keith will check with the BOS for the accurate time and inform the Secretary for posting. He further informed that DEAC is also meeting on June 16th.

Superintendent Report

Dr. Jefferson congratulated Piali and Patty on the graduation of their children. He also expressed thanks to all who made the event a success.
