Molly O’Rourke-Friel stated the Student Council enjoyed having Piali De and Keith Cheveralls attend their meeting last Friday.

School Committee Reports

Patty Wenger reported on the Harvard Elementary School Council. The Council is compiling the results from the teacher survey and will present their findings to the Committee. She further reported that the Energy Advisory Committee was holding its “Go Green” event this evening. Patty asked Committee members if they were planning on attending the MASC conference in November. She questioned if the Chair and Vice Chair had scheduled to meet with the teachers three times per year. The Chair said he would email the HTA representative to schedule dates.

Piali De reported on attending The Bromfield School Student Council meeting.

Virginia Justicz reported that the FinCom Survey was complete and the results will be available in November. She also reported that 9C cuts would be revealed on October 15th.

Stu Sklar reported on the Bromfield School Council meeting. He advised that parents would be able to sign up for conferences online beginning tomorrow. He also advised that many Bromfield teachers were not pleased with the Thanksgiving break schedule. The Fall Ciderhouse is scheduled for October 28th at Fruitlands and Senior Projects are 90% approved. Stu further reported on the Suburban Coalition who has events planned for September 30th and November 5th.

The Committee agreed to attend the Acton Town Meeting with Jen Benson on November 9th and to substitute this event for its regular scheduled meeting and to continue the meeting in Harvard at 9:00 p.m. if necessary.

Maureen Babcock, DEAC representative, reported that DEAC had its first meeting on September 22nd. DEAC is working on updating its guidelines and creating an annual parent survey. DEAC enjoyed a presentation by Evergreen Playschool and voted to approve the one room schoolhouse. DEAC will invite other Devens’ programs to present at their meetings.

Keith Cheveralls reported that the Capital Planning Committee will meet on Thursday, and it is in the developmental planning process. He informed that Jen Benson will attend the October 26th meeting in an open format, and he welcomed topics from members. He reminded the Committee of the November 30th joint training with Glenn Koocher. He also asked members to send their MCAS follow questions for the next meeting’s agenda.
